

THE MESSENGERS OF TRUTH

*In the name of Allah,
the Clement,
the Merciful*

RAH-E-ISLAM

No.169-170, May-June, 1998

Editor, Printer, Publisher: Mohammad Reza Bagheri

Contents

The Messengers of Truth (Editorial)

Foundation of Unity

All Indian Persian Teachers Refresher
Course

The Caravan of Jihad and the Caravan of Message

From Khordad to Khordad

Woman and World Mass Media

Iran and the Cultural Development of India

Confluence of Religion and Culture

The Rah-e-Islam monthly magazine has allocated some of its pages for English articles. The honourable readers may send their papers to us on the address given below.

Address:
The Editor, RAH-E-ISLAM
18, Tilak Marg, New Delhi-110001
Tele.: 3383232-4 Fax. No.3387547

The Creator of this universe sent Hazrat Adam (AS) as the promoter of mankind and also to guide the world people to the Divine path, which will ultimately lead them towards the real success and glory and will enable them to be away from evils. After Hazrat Adam, so many prophets came to the human world to keep the light of guidance burning and Hazrat Muhammad (S.A.W.A.W) being the last prophet made the Divine mission perfect.

During his lifetime, Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W.A.W) tolerated all kinds of sufferings, but continued the Islamic mission of guiding the masses to the right path and also made all possible arrangements for its protection from the enemies by introducing Imams, who were assigned the job of guiding the Muslim Ummah after his death. But even half a century could not pass after the death of Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W.A.W) when the most corrupt person of the period Yezid son of Muavieh claimed the leadership of Islam and Islamic Ummah. The grandson of Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W.A.W) Hazrat Imam Hussain (AS) could not tolerate it and raised his voice against the ruling regime. Yezid tried to suppress his voice of Islamic Revolution by adopting all possible means of tyranny and oppression. But he could not succeed in his unholy mission as Hussain offered the most valuable sacrifices of his companions, sons and relatives during the historic tragedy of Karbala, which protected Islam for ever. In fact, it was the Hussaini revolution of Karbala, which influenced all other revolutions emerging throughout the world.

During the period of Imam Mahdi's disappearance so many movements were started for the revival of Islam but these were either defeated or had deviated from the right path of Islam due to lack of unity among the Muslim masses. Imam Khomeini, being a descendant of the holy progeny of the prophet of Islam followed the prophet's footprints, pursued the teachings of Imam Hussain and staged his exalted Islamic Revolution, which emerged victorious inspite of the strongest possible opposition by the imperialistic forces. He established the Islamic Republic system of governance under the Islamic principle of Velayat-e-Faqih i.e. supremacy of jurisprudence.

Following the tragic and sorrowful death of Imam Khomeini, Hazrat Ayatullah-ul-Uzma Syed Ali Khamenei shouldered the responsibility of the leader of Islamic Revolution and has so far successfully been guiding the Iranian people and the Islamic Republic of Iran towards the path of Islamic success and glory with the aim of handing over this great Islamic legacy to its real custodian in Imam Mahdi.

